Shaikhzoda stood out from all of us not only in the sense of reason, but also in the sense of siymo. The idle question of the autonomous mouth did not seem to melt into it. On the contrary, everywhere, all the time, in all environments and conditions, the feeling of pride, which has made his heart prosperous, has been exasperated. He leaned, even proud, and said that he was Azerbaijani, coming from Azerbaijan. While reciting the same words, Maqsud's face seemed as if the sun in the sky had moved (Maqsud from a page of memoirs about the Sheikhzoda).

Maqsud Shaykhzoda is a poet, playwright, literary critic, translator, educator. Honored art figure in Uzbekistan. Graduated from dorilmuallimin in Baku. Arrested in 1927 as a member of the counter-revolutionary organization, he was exiled to Tashkent in February 1928. After a short period of study at the Oriental Faculty of the University of Central Asia (1928), he served in the editorial offices of the newspapers "Eastern truth", "Red Uzbekistan", "young Lenin" (1932), "Gulistan" magazine. Graduated from Baku Pedagogical Institute (1934). He worked as a researcher at the Institute of language and literature in Tashkent. Since 1938, he has been a teacher at the Tashkent Pedagogical Institute named after Nizami.

Lermontov's poems and the epic "prisoner of the Caucasus" were translated into Uzbek.

Shaykhzoda was arrested in 1952, sentenced to 25 years in prison, and released in 1954.

Maqsud Shaykhzoda died on February 19, 1967. He was buried in the chigatoy cemetery. Awarded the order of merit (2001). One of the streets in Tashkent is named after Shaykhzoda.

He is a carefree, innocent, like a dead wine,
Neither drunkenness nor excitement.
Whereas, in a free flight,
Elga ran while playing as a partner,
The piece of the well, on a huge scale –
In the barren deserts, the sands have cooled.
Or evening time with shabboda

Kissed girls under the plantains,
Bonfire when burning in the gorges,
A little bit of isinga ran into the fire.
That's what bari was. Bari truth...
But it is remembered in dreams only.
A piece of air choked in the chest
The claim that one cohorts are free...
So: a tinted Cup in water
There is a legend of floods, streams,
In a broken mirror that is blurred
Khushroi has the ruins of Husni,
In today's silence, if you listen, dildor,
Yesterday's weddings have a Taron.
