

WHY IS ENGLISH?

G.Yu.Sharipova Teacher of the English language of the Academic lyceum of Samarkand State
Economics and Service Institute sharipovaguljaxon20@gmail.com

Abstract: The importance of learning English is growing in modern society. This language is not only a means of international relations, but also provides many opportunities necessary for success in personal and professional life. Through knowledge of the English language, people expand their range of knowledge, get acquainted with new cultures and have the opportunity to actively participate in the global arena.

Keywords: English, communication, problems, language, programs, cooperation
1, culture, national identity.

Millions of people in the world communicate in English. The prevalence of this language as a global language is one of the main reasons for its study. With the help of English, people of different nationalities and cultures communicate easily and effectively with each other. This will increase international cooperation and create new opportunities in the areas of trade, education, science and culture. The study of the English language also plays a large role in the educational system. Many international universities and research centers conduct their classes in English. Through knowledge of the language, students use the world's leading scientific resources, master new technologies, and become leading experts in their field. Also, knowledge of English makes it easier to get an education abroad, since in many countries academic programs are organized on the basis of this very language.[1]

Knowledge of English is a great advantage in the job market. Global companies and organizations prefer employees who speak English because they are able to communicate effectively with international clients and partners. Through knowledge of the English language, the opportunity to find a job expands, professional growth accelerates and the opportunity to operate internationally appears. This serves to increase personal income and improve the quality of life. Learning English makes traveling more interesting. For people traveling around the world, English serves as a universal language. With it, they become easier for them to feel free in new places, communicate with local residents and solve problems in everyday life. Knowledge of English makes trips more comfortable and safe, helping to understand new cultures in more depth. The importance of the English language in the field of Internet and information technology is incomparable. Many online resources, scientific articles, educational materials and news are available in English. By knowing this language, a person will be able to quickly and easily access the latest world-class information. There will also be an opportunity to work in the English language in such modern areas as programming, design, marketing. This is important for the development and efficient use of modern technology.[2]

English has a large role in culture and the arts. In cinema, music, literature and other forms of Art, English is a global language. By knowing this language, people can understand the works of art they like in their original language, get new cultural experiences. With the help of English, it is possible to communicate with artists from around the world, to show their creativity in the international arena. This enhances cultural exchange and brings people together. Learning English develops interpersonal communication. Today, many people come from different countries and talk to each other in English. With the help of this language, they freely express their thoughts, establish friendships and increase intercultural understanding. English is also an important tool in strengthening international cooperation and peace. Through knowledge of the language, humans understand each other better and build friendships around the world.[3]

Learning English also has a great influence on a person's personal development. The process of language learning improves the functioning of the brain, strengthens memory and increases the ability to concentrate. This helps to achieve success in other areas as well. Language proficiency increases a person's self-confidence, develops the ability to adapt to new situations, and stimulates creative thinking.[4]

Another important aspect of learning English is active participation in global information exchange. Today, news, scientific discoveries and technological advances are rapidly spreading throughout the world. Through knowledge of the English language, human beings find their place in these processes, receive new knowledge more quickly and are able to express their thoughts in the international arena. This is important for achieving success in both personal and professional life. Also, by learning English, people will be able to actively participate in the global economy. English has been adopted as the main language of international business. With the help of this language, companies provide their products and services to a wider audience, occupy new markets and increase their competitiveness. Therefore, knowledge of English is one of the keys to economic success. Learning English broadens people's worldview and makes them an active member of global society. With the help of this language, people get acquainted with different cultures, understand their traditions and values. This serves to strengthen peace and harmony around the world. Through the English language, human beings build a bond of mutual respect and friendship, developing intercultural dialogue.[5]

Conclusion:

In conclusion, learning English is important in the modern world in personal and professional development, global Communication, Education, Success in the job market, intercultural communication and global information exchange. By knowing this language, people open the door to new opportunities, expand their worldview and actively participate in global society. Learning English is an important step towards investment, personal and community development for the future. Therefore, everyone should pay special attention to learning English. This is necessary not only to meet the requirements of modern life, but also to further develop oneself and keep up with the world.

References:

1. Rakhmatullayev Sh. The current literary Uzbek language. T.: "University " Press, 2006. – 212 b.
2. Abdanbekova N.R. Modern methods of learning English. Tashkent: Nizami tspu publishing house, 2023. – 180 b.
3. Harmer J. The practice of teaching English (translation into Uzbek). Tashkent: Publishing House " Sharq", 2022. – 256 b.
4. The Ministry of Education of the Republic of Uzbekistan is a methodology for Learning English. Tashkent: Publishing House " Science and education", 2023. – 200 b.
5. Karimov A. Methods and technologies of teaching English. Tashkent: publishing house " Ilm-Ziyo", 2024. – 210 b.
6. Islamova D. Methodology for Learning English. Samarkand: Samarkand State University Press, 2023. – 175 b.
7. Tursunov M. English textbooks and teaching techniques. Tashkent: publishing house "new generation", 2022. – 190 b.
8. Mirzaev S. Methods of teaching Modern English. Tashkent: publishing house " teacher", 2023. – 220 b.